

Serrano Creation Story

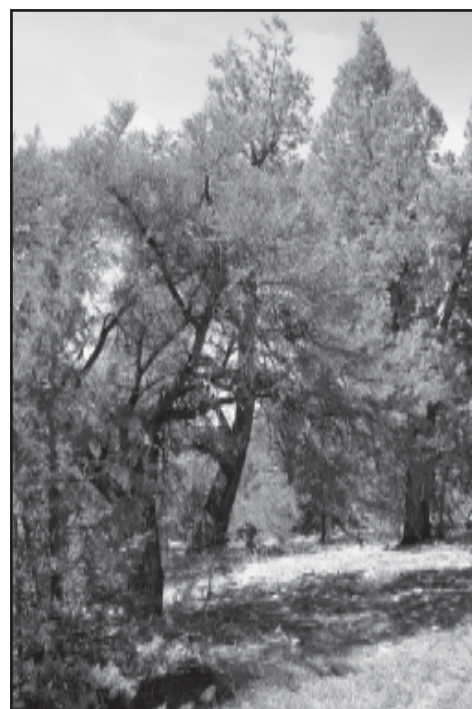

A San Bernardino County Museum Association Field Trip with Curator of Anthropology Adella Schroth and Curator of Education Jolene Redvale

Your choice of August 19 or October 7, 2006

Check in at the museum at 7:45 a.m. and return about 5:00 p.m.

Witness the beginning of Yuhaviatam, the People of the Pines. Travel with San Manuel's Tribal Unity and Cultural Awareness Program Director James Ramos as he tells his people's creation story. Discover how the Serrano people came into the world, and explore their special relationship with the mountains. Daniel McCarthy, Tribal Relations Program Manager for the San Bernardino National Forest, will share insights into ways the Serrano people have lived in their summer mountain home. We will visit three sites that reveal the Serrano creation story, and make a couple stops at favorite Big Bear destinations, too.

Curator of Anthropology Dee Schroth and Curator of Education Jolene Redvale will be your hosts on this trip, sponsored in part by the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians. The tour fee of $20 per Association member or $25 per non-member includes transportation, morning coffee, light snacks, and water. Pack your own lunch. We will be doing some walking, so wear sturdy, comfortable shoes, bring your sun hat, and wear sunscreen. Bring a camera to capture memories of this fascinating trip.

Space is limited, and pre-paid reservations are required.

Return the coupon below no later than August 7, 2006
